

Welcome

Reflection

God of the Present

"I also came to see that I should not worry about tomorrow, next week, next year, or next century. The more willing I was to look honestly at what I was thinking and saying and doing now, the more easily I would come into touch with the movement of God's Spirit in me, leading me to the future. God is a God of the present and reveals to those who are willing to listen carefully to the moment in which they live the steps they are to take toward the future. "Do not worry about tomorrow," Jesus says, "tomorrow will take care of itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own" (Matthew 6:34)."

—Henri Nouwen, In the Name of Jesus: Reflections on Christian Leadership, Prologue

Conscious Darkness

"After years of being taught that the way to deal with painful emotions is to get rid of them, it can take a lot of reschooling to learn to sit with them instead, finding out from those who feel them what they learned by sleeping in the wilderness that those who sleep in comfortable homes may never know. "One does not become enlightened by imagining figures of light," Carl Jung wrote, "but by making the darkness conscious.""

—Barbara Brown Taylor, Learning to Walk in the Dark, p. 86

Notices:

We give thanks for the life of Les Dixon. Les was a faithful, hard working member of St Philip's for over 50 years. Please pray for Elaine and her family in their grief.

Notice to St Philip's sidepersons

It is a requirement that a record be kept of all people attending our services. There is a list of our parishioners on the sidesperson's table and we ask you to fill in the date and time of the service and tick peoples name off when they arrive. After the service please file the form in the filing cabinet in the office under "Attendance"

Parish Voice

Will all those with an article for our next Parish Voice please give their articles to either Abraham John, Kay Brindal or Pat Luke not later than Sunday August 16th.

Helen Randle's birthday.

Helen who has been a member of St Philip's for 55 years will be celebrating her 80th birthday this August and we will join in her celebrations with a catered morning tea after the morning service on Sunday 23rd August.

Food for Anglicare

Thanks to those who contribute food for Anglicare – please continue to do so. The need is greater than usual.

ABM Project

Our thanks to all who have continued to drop off recyclable containers to our churches. Please continue to do so.

Stamps for ABM

Please cut stamps off envelopes leaving an area 5mm around the stamp if possible. You may bring them to the box at the back of St Philip's.

If you have not collected stamps previously please consider doing so now because over the years ABM has raised much money for ABM's mission work throughout the world.
