Please stay and be our guest for tea and coffee immediately following the 9am service at St Clement's, 10.30am service at St Philip's and the 4pm CSI Malayalam service also at St Philip's.

Reflection

From Julian of Norwich's 'Revelations of Divine Love'

And when Almighty God had shown me his goodness so plenteously and so fully, I wished to know, concerning a certain creature whom I loved, if it would continue in the good living which I hoped had been begun by the grace of God; and in this particular wish it seemed that I impeded myself, for I was not then told this. And then I was answered in my reason, as it were by a friendly intermediary: Accept it generally, and contemplate the courtesy of your Lord God as he revealed it to you, for it is more honour to God to contemplate him in all things than in any one special thing. I agreed, and with that I learned that it is more honour to God to know everything in general than it is to take delight in any special thing. And if I were to act wisely, in accordance with this teaching, I should not be glad because of any special thing or be greatly distressed by anything at all, for all will be well; for the fullness of joy is to contemplate God in everything.
