

Welcome

Welcome to worship in the Anglican Parish of Broadview and Enfield. We are always delighted to meet new friends. Please stay and be our guest for tea and coffee immediately following the 9am service at St Clement's, 10.30am service at St Philip's and the 4pm CSI Malayalam service also at St Philip's.

Reflection

You are above me, O God,
you are within.
You are in all things
yet contained by no thing.
Teach me to seek you in all that has life
that I may see you as the Light of life.
Teach me to search for you in my own depths that I may find you in every living soul.

-John Philip Newell, "Sounds of the Eternal: A Celtic Psalter"

The Easter Season is meant to teach us to practice (year after year) a new way of seeing, or to embrace a multi-dimensional sensibility somehow. And every year these post-resurrection stories seem odder and more revelatory. This one about Jesus eating fish asks us to think about substance, "The more I think, the less I 'get it.'"

-Suzanne Guthrie

They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Parish Voice

Thank you to all who have contributed to the next issue.

Anne Rendell's ashes will be interred in St Philip's Memorial Garden this Sunday 18th April immediately after the service.

St Philip's roster is now being co-ordinated by Hazel Price for the morning tea and Lynn Ward for the other duties.

St Philip's Hall Roof

Work on the St Philip's hall roof has now commenced and it will be appreciated if our parishioners will keep away from the church property while the work is in progress. We expect it to be finished before Anzac Day. We will be able to hold our normal Sunday services.

Thanks to the Malayalam men who painted the barge boards for us.

Parishioners are reminded to please donate groceries etc. for Anglicare and to bring stamps for ABM.
